The AKC Temperament Test (ATT) is a general temperament test for all breeds and mixed breed dogs . It will assess the dog's reaction to a variety of stimuli. This workshop will cover the rules and procedures for the temperament test, such as filling out the forms when you arrive at test. We will also cover the rules and procedures to help you and your dog perform the test .

The CGC workshop will cover the rules and procedures and explain the various exercises required to successfully complete the CGC Test
